

Resident International Rotation Suggested Self-Assessment Tool Adapted from Competency-based Curriculum Objectives	Level of mastery before rotation	Level of mastery after rotation
What level of mastery do you feel you have achieved? 1: none, just beginning 2: limited experience, developing familiarity 3: familiar, need more experience 4: comfortable managing with limited guidance 5: ready for independent practice	1 2 3 4 5	1 2 3 4 5
Apply and improve upon physical examination skills and clinical diagnosis in settings where diagnostic studies are limited.
Demonstrate understanding of the presentation, differential diagnosis and evaluation to pediatric patients with the following problems: Diarrhea/dehydration Respiratory Distress Fever (including malaria) Seizures/Altered Mental Status Malnutrition (including Severe Acute Malnutrition) HIV/AIDS Other (resident can fill-in site-specific goals): _____ _____ _____

Identify common ethical dilemmas and challenges confronted when working in a setting with limited resources or different cultural values.
Demonstrate working knowledge of standardized guidelines (e.g., WHO/UNICEF) for diagnosis and treatment of conditions common to the setting.
Recognize underlying socioeconomic and political determinants of infant/child health specific to the local situation
Describe examples of cultural differences relevant to care patients at the international site and how traditional medicine and Western/scientific medicine can conflict with or complement one another.
Demonstrate an understanding of the health care delivery system in the specific setting: including hospitals, clinics and the community, and the roles of different health care workers as they apply to patients, such as the physician, nurse, community health worker, traditional birth attendant, etc.
Individual Objectives:		